BOLSHEVIK FORCES LOSE FROM 5,000 TO 8,000 MEN IN BATTLE NEAR ODESSA

French, After Inflicting Enormous Losses on Enemy, are Forced to Retire

BOLSHEVISTS MAKING PLANS FOR SUPPLIES

Almost Entire Ukraine Now in Hands of the Soviets

Ukraine Granary for Russia and is Much Sought by Reds

(By Associated Press)

London, March 20.—Virtually all of the Ukraine is now in the hands of the Bolsheviks, according to advices reaching London today.

In heavy fighting at Nikolaev northeast of Odessa, the Bolsheviks lost between 5,000 and 8,000 men, but forced the French garrison, after heavy fighting, to withdraw to Odessa.

Further east the advices say, the Bolsheviks have reached the Isthmus of Perekop, leading to the Crimea.

The Bolsheviks apparently are engaged in a strong effort to subdue Russian opposition in the Ukraine and drive allied forces from that region before spring.

The Ukraine is the granary of Russia, and Odessa, before the war, was the greatest grain shipping point in Russia. If the Bolsheviks can control the great agricultural region of the Ukraine they might be able to relieve the serious food shortage in the north.

Aided by Ukrainian-Bolshevik forces, troops of the Moscow government in the last three weeks have occupied Kiev and other important towns in the center of the Ukraine, and have driven the peasant government of General Petlura from Kiev to within 40 miles east of the border of Galicia.

In the center of the front between Odessa and Riga the Bolsheviks apparently are giving much ground.

There has been more or less activity in the last two weeks on the allied front south of Archangel but the Bolsheviks have made no progress.

In the defense of Odessa and the nearby region French, British, Greek and Russian forces are aiding non-Bolshevik Ukrainians and Cossack detachments of General Denikine's forces. In the center of the western front the Bolsheviks are opposed by the Poles while in the north the Lithuanians, Letts and Estonians are fighting the Soviet forces. American forces are engaged against the Bolsheviks only on the Archangel front.

ADmits HE STARTED FIRES
Columbus, O., March 20.—State Fire Marshal T. Alfred Fleming received word yesterday that Omar Robertson, 23 years old had confessed he set fire to a school building in Blanchard Township, Hardin County, and also that he started two fires near Dunkirk.

NEUTRALS WILL EXPRESS VIEWS ON LEAGUE PLAN

(By Associated Press)

Paris, March 20.—Neutral countries of Europe, Asia and South America will be given opportunity today to express their views and propose amendments to the league of nations plan.

Nearby neutrals such as Holland and Switzerland have sent delegates in response to the invitation to the supreme council while more distant countries will be represented by ambassadors residing in Paris.

A HINT FOR THE DAY YOUR BOY COMES MARCHING HOME

Trench periscope handy on parade day

A London woman in the immense crowd before Westminster Abbey at the time of the wedding of Princess Patricia to Commander Ramsey, used trench periscope brought from France by her husband. When this ingenious woman took along the periscope to make certain of seeing, despite the size of the crowd, a new use was discovered for this great war invention. This picture may furnish a hint to the many thousands throughout the country who are preparing for the home coming of their heroes.

Polish Forces Score Victory Over Bolsheviks at Pinsk

(By Associated Press)

Copenhagen, March 20.—The important railroad junction town of Mitau, southwest of Riga, has been captured by Lettish troops, a Lettish official statement issued Wednesday announces. The Bolsheviks, the statement adds, are retiring along the whole front.

EVACUATE PINSK

(By Associated Press)

Copenhagen, March 20.—Bolshevik troops under pressure of Polish forces have been compelled to retire and evacuate Pinsk, 100 miles east of Brest-Litovsk, according to a dispatch from Warsaw.

NEGOTIATIONS AGAIN STOPPED BY GERMANS

Evasive Attitude of German Government Causes Halt at Posen

(By Associated Press)

Paris, March 20.—Negotiations between the inter-allied commission and the German government's representatives at Posen have again been interrupted at a time when a result seemed about to be reached. It is said this is the result of the evasive attitude of the German government.

Dispatches state the German high command appears to be in open conflict with the Berlin cabinet and will not undertake to respect an armistice between the Germans and Poles.

PLAN WILSON RECEPTION

(By Associated Press)

Brussels, March 20.—The former residence of Princess

Clementine here is being fitted up to receive President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, who are expected to visit Brussels before the end of the present month. The program for the entertainment of the presidential party includes a reception to be given by the two Houses of Parliament and a visit with King Albert to Louvain.

DRY LEADERS TO TRY EMERGENCY CLAUSE AGAIN

Next Tuesday Afternoon Day Fixed for Attempt at Reconsideration of Prohibition Bill

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., March 20.—Dry leaders in the legislature decided today to make another attempt to pass the emergency clause of the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill next Tuesday afternoon.

In the meantime anti-Saloon league forces will attempt to secure the necessary 13 votes which they lacked yesterday to make the prohibition bill an emergency.

The bill cannot come up in the Senate now until it is disposed of in the House.

New York, March 20.—Bringing casual company No. 1473, comprising 2 officers and 102 men of Ohio, the steamship Maumee arrived here today.

LIBERTY BONDS STOLEN

Napoleon, Ohio, March 20.—(By Associated Press)—Cracksmen melted off with acetylene the lock of the vault in the Ridgeville Savings Bank at Ridgeville Corners, near here, escaped with a large amount of liberty bonds and war savings stamps early Wednesday. Bank officials decline to estimate the loss until they check up with their patrons. Rumors place it at $35,000. The safe was untouched.

TWO DECORATIONS

Lieutenant E. G. Chamberlain

Investigation of the stories of the remarkable air exploits of Captain Edmund G. Chamberlain of San Antonio, Tex., of the Marines, has resulted in an order by the American naval authorities for a court-martial to sit in London March 24, according to a dispatch from London. Capt. Chamberlain's recommendations for decorations are questioned. Chamberlain, as a lieutenant, was recommended for the Victoria Cross and the American Congressional Medal of Honor, in August, 1918, for an exploit over the British front in a battle with twelve German machines. Chamberlain, it was reported, destroyed five enemy planes and damaged two others. His plane was damaged, but he landed successfully, whereupon he captured a German prisoner. Keeping his prisoner, Chamberlain was reported to have found a wounded French officer and to have carried him back to safety into the British lines under a heavy German fire.

WILL FLOAT BIG ISSUE OF BONDS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 20.—The war finance corporation is considering floating a large bond issue, probably of $200,000,000, within a few weeks, to provide money for railroads and to meet any other demands on the corporation.

The interest rate contemplated is 4 3/4 percent and the bonds would run for a year or a year and a half.

GERMAN OFFICERS LEAD BOLSHEVISTS

Saioniki, March 20.—(Associated Press)—The Greek victory at Kheron, northwest of Odessa, was won over a Bolshevik force of four times the strength of the Greek division engaged, according to an official statement.

The statement declares the Bolshevik armies have been reorganized and are under the command of German officers, a large number of whom participated in the battle. The Greek troops advanced to a depth of more than twelve miles.

BARNES ADMITS HE KILLED WIFE; IS HELD TO COURT

Sheriff Ervin States That Accused Man's Mind is Wreck

Coroner Reports and Probe of Moses Killing is Under Way

Special To The Herald.

Hillsboro, O., March 20.—(2:30 p. m.)—Homer Barnes, moving picture theater proprietor here, has confessed to the killing of his wife, Charlotte, whose body was found in the Barnes apartments Tuesday.

Confined in the county jail here with his mind badly disordered, Barnes has admitted that he seized a razor and then heard his wife scream, after which he threw the razor down.

Confirming his story the blood-covered razor today was found in the register of the hot air furnace where it had fallen.

Yesterday afternoon Barnes was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of first degree murder, but apparently he does not realize the gravity of the charge, or that his wife is dead.

Sheriff Henry Ervin expresses the belief that the man is a total wreck mentally, as there is little or nothing to indicate that he has at any time since the murder, been in possession of his normal mental faculties. His appetite, according to Sheriff Ervin, is exceptionally good.

While the man still disclaims any knowledge of the killing of John Moses, Syrian merchant, evidence tending to incriminate Barnes is said to be on the increase, and deep interest is being manifested in the outcome of certain investigations now under way. The finding of a pair of blood soaked trousers in the picture theatre of which Barnes was the proprietor has not been explained satisfactorily.

Coroner McWilliams' report has been made and briefly states that Mrs. Barnes came to her death by means of a sharp weapon. The report, it is said, does not directly accuse the husband of the crime.

A few minutes prior to the crime, according to neighbors who talked with Mrs. Barnes, she had expressed uneasiness about her husband's condition, stating that if she did not know him so well she might be afraid of him.

Friends here recall that for some time Barnes apparently has been laboring under a mental strain.

BRIBE PROBERS IN SESSION TODAY

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., March 20.—The legislative probe committee appointed to investigate charges of alleged bribery discussed in executive session today plans for calling witnesses.

At the conclusion of the meeting members announced they had considered the alleged activities of lobbyists and misconduct in connection with the chiropractors bill.

COURT ENDS HONEYMOON

Cleveland, O., March 20.—Ethel McKindly Luis, 16 years old, bride of Gerald Luis, was sentenced to the Girl's Industrial School at Delaware by Juvenile Court Judge George S. Addams, making the third time in six months she has been sent to houses of correction. Luis, it is said, helped her escape from two.

Miss Mary Anderson

Miss Mary Anderson, vice-chairman of the Washington Committee of the National Women's Trade Union League, sailed from France recently in response to a letter from President Wilson stating that he thinks it desirable women workers should have at least one or two representatives at the Peace Conference, according to a report here. Miss Anderson sailed from New York.

VON HINDENBURG DEFENDS ACTION OF FORMER RULER

Says Hohenzollern Left Germany to Prevent Further Bloodshed Among the Germans

He Had "Great Mental Struggle" Before Hiding Himself to Holland

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, March 20.—Aroused by recent criticism of former Emperor William regarding his flight to Holland, Field Marshal von Hindenburg has prepared and published here a defense of the ex-ruler's action.

After dissecting the situation of last November the Field Marshal writes:

"The peaceful return home of the Emperor then became impossible. It could only have been carried out through the forceful employment of many loyal troops and civil war would have been added to the hostilities of the enemy. The Emperor could have taken himself to the fighting front to meet death at the head of his troops in a last attack, but the armistice so keenly desired by the people would have been postponed and needless slaughter resulted. "The Emperor, after a conference with his advisers and after a great mental struggle decided to leave the country in the hope of ending bloodshed."

NEW RATES APPROVED

Washington, March 20.—Applications of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for increased freight rates on petroleum and petroleum products from Ashland, Ky., Huntington, W. Va., and other points to Eastern cities, were approved for filing by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

It is also reported the French occupied Rheinau, five miles south of Mannheim.

PRESIDENT TO PRESIDE OVER FINAL SESSIONS

Commission on League of Nations to Meet Saturday for Final Consideration of All Proposals

Shaping Clause Expected to Protect The Monroe Doctrine

Suggestions Made by Neutrals to be Given Consideration

(By Associated Press)

Paris, March 19.—President Wilson will act as chairman at the meeting of the league of nations commission which will be held at ten o'clock Saturday morning when all proposed amendments and changes will be considered.

This will be the first meeting of the commission since the covenant was adopted and it will consider proposals submitted at the hearing of neutrals on Thursday, and also other suggestions.

Lord Robert Cecil and former United States Attorney General Gregory are now here and are among those who have sought to draft a provision relative to the Monroe Doctrine in such a form that it will meet approval of legal experts.

SHARP WARNING WILL BE GIVEN TO STOP STRIFE

Allied Military Leaders Called in to Recommend Action for Stopping Bloodshed

Siege of Lemberg is Cause of Action

(By Associated Press)

Paris, March 20.—Marshal Foch and other generals were called in during today's session of the supreme council to give their advice as to action which should be taken in Galicia where Ukrainian forces are besieging Lemberg, which is threatened from three sides.

It was decided that a sharp warning should be sent to both sides asking for a suspension of hostilities.

The warning will take the form of an "injunction to the two armies."

STRONGER MEN TAKE THE LEAD

They Have Nerves of Iron and Real Red Fighting Blood

Vital force is the material from which leaders in all walks of life are made. It is well worth getting and holding.

The health and nerve of the athlete is what Nature intended every man and woman to have.

The blood of an athlete is pure and red, a strong heart pumps and drives it through his body. No wonder that every inch of his system is filled with energy and health, his nerves like iron, spirits high, hard tasks a pleasure and life one song of joy.

A leading Doctor says, "Everyone should feel this way. That if you are not red blooded, are nervous, all run down and on your last legs, for you to build up your blood and nerves with exercise, fresh air, nourishing food and Nature's great prescription, Phosphated Iron is a real blood and nerve builder."

He also says, "Phosphated Iron feeds the blood cells with iron and nerve force, and that leading specialists are now using it successfully all over the country, that it is one of the few remedies that better class doctors can now depend on to produce results."

Special Notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the Genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to sell you pills or tablets.

BURIAL SERVICES FRANK BATEMAN
Middletown Journal Pays High Tribute to Washington's Former Resident.

Simple, but beautifully impressive were the farewell services held for Mr. Frank M. Bateman, at the home of the Aunts, Misses Lizzie and Anna Bell, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. They were conducted by Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington, of Grace M. E. Church, and Rev. David W. Barre, of St. Andrews Church, while the rooms were filled with friends sympathizing deeply with the family so sadly bereaved.

Miss Edith Gardner sang with much sweetness "Abide With Me" and as the music pulsed through the rooms there were many who remembered Mr. Bateman's fine tenor voice a voice of great possibilities, which he had used most generously for the pleasure of his friends and often for their comfort, never failing to respond when his talent was needed, whether in church services, in affairs of entertainment or in such sad gatherings as the one when the former singer lay quiet and still.

Rev. Barre read the hymn "Lead Kindly Light" and Rev. Cherrington closed the brief service with prayer.

The ritual service of the B. P. O. E. No. 129 was beautifully conducted by Rev. Barre at the Washington cemetery, where the burial was made in the family lot by the side of the parents.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. H. R. Dodecker, Orme Brown, Glenn M. Pine, Harry Rankin, Chas. A. Gosard and George Davis.

The wealth of flowers, designs, baskets, sprays and cut flowers gave fragrant testimony of the affection and regard of business firms, lodge brethren, relatives and friends in this city, Middletown and other cities.

Those who came from away for the services were the widow and only son, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Miller and son, of Middletown, Mrs. J. L. McKee, who has been with Mrs. Bateman for the winter, Mrs. Tobie Bateman, Chillicothe, Mrs. Baurle, Miss Nesbit, Miss Collins, Mrs. Chas. Snider, Xenia.

The Middletown Journal paid high tribute to Mr. Bateman, saying in part:

"Frank M. Bateman, aged 44, died yesterday afternoon at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati of pneumonia. When the sad news was flashed over the wires, a pall spread over the city, for there are few men in Middletown, whose activities have touched citizens in so many different walks of life.

Mr. Bateman was as happy as a little boy, it is said, with the anticipation of returning home from the hospital. However, just before he was to start, attendants discovered that his temperature had taken a sudden rise. Keen, indeed was his disappointment when told that his departure necessarily would be delayed, but resignedly he expressed confidence that the trip would soon be made. That night pneumonia developed and this hastened the end. Mrs. Bateman had kept a long, patient vigil with utmost fortitude, and was at the bedside of her companion to the last.

Mr. Bateman was born in Washington, C. H., March 19, 1875. Eight years ago last October he moved his family to Middletown and became connected with the American Rolling Mill company. Since that time his splendid service had been repeatedly rewarded by promotions, until at the time of his death he held the responsible position of superintendent of stores. It has been said by those who know, that no employee of the company has ever been more imbued with the Armo spirit than Mr. Bateman. He seemed to be the very embodiment of its principles.

His interest in the departure of the Armo ambulance corps for France in August, 1917, was a pleasure equal to the members of the body and to himself. It is recalled that at the last dinner given for the members in New York before they sailed, in a little farewell speech, Mr. Bateman said as tears rushed down his cheeks "I trust that the good Lord will watch over you and bring each one of you safely home." Later, appreciating all the care and attention that he had given them before their departure, the boys wrote back at one time, declaring that if upon their return Mr. Bateman was not at the dock, they would turn back to France. This pleased him greatly. In recent weeks he had anticipated happily the safe return of the entire corps, alive and well.

During the past year and a half, Mr. Bateman had been deeply interested in all the war activities of Middletown. He was a leader in every war campaign and his insistence upon on efficiency always brought bountiful results.

The three big parades during the war—the initial appearance of the Home Guard in which he was a prime mover, the magnificent Red Cross Twilight pageant and later the splendid Lador Day parade were fruits of his efforts and no one can say but that they were the best Middletown has ever seen. He had an aptitude for organization and this was shown to no better advantage in other than these events.

Mr. Bateman secured his military training in the Spanish-American war when as a member of the quartermaster's department he saw active service in Porto Rico. Ever since he was happy when in a uniform and his fondest ambitions were realized when he was made grand marshal of Middletown's war-time parade.

In civic affairs Mr. Bateman was an ardent advocate of everything that pointed to a greater and cleaner Middletown. As director of organization in the Chamber of Commerce he was happily at home and many of the progressive steps made by that organization were through his efforts. That he was deeply interested in Middletown was shown in the telegram he sent from his sick bed to the Chamber of Commerce at its annual meeting just two weeks ago. These were his words:

"Sorry I am unable to be with you tonight. My kindest regards to the bunch. Here's to the Middletown Chamber of Commerce and Middletown herself, the best town in Ohio."

This is the spirit which pervaded his whole being. His popularity was evinced in the applause which appended the reading of that message, which his many friends knew emanated from his very soul.

Mr. Bateman was a member of the Elks' Lodge at Washington C. H., and of Lafayette Lodge, K. of P., in Middletown. He was a loyal brother of both lodges and will be missed in their activities.

He was also a member of the Broadway M. E. Church and was a consistent worshiper at that shrine.

But as a home lover Mr. Bateman attained the heights of everything that is lofty and good and true. He was never happier than when surrounded by his loved ones and he did not hesitate in letting his friends know of his love for his good wife and his bright little son, Robert. He was also a dutiful brother to Mrs. H. O. Miller. His companionship with his son was ideal in every way.

Kind, congenial, always happy, he won friends everywhere and that is why it is gloomy today in the many walks of life of men in Middletown.

Frank Bateman is gone, but long after him will remain the precious, never-fading memory of a life lived in the fullness of everything that goes to make up an esteemed citizen and a true gentleman."

HUGE GENERATOR IS ALMOST READY

The huge 400 K. W. generator which has been under process of installation in the plant of The Washington Gas and Electric Company, will probably be ready for use some time next week, and when it is in operation the capacity of the plant will be more than doubled.

The generator, which formerly was in use at the Panama Canal, and was purchased of the government, will be a guarantee against mishap similar to that which occurred this week when the town was in darkness part of two or three nights due to a bearing melting out in one of the engines.

The engines now in use have been running almost constantly for the past two years, and with the new equipment it will be possible to give them a rest.

DOLMANS AND CAPES
Are Favored By All Stylists

Perhaps the smartest and most stylish garment to wear over the suit or dress is the Dolman or the Cape.

As in the suit fashions, so in these garments, the originators set the seal of their favor upon this particular style, not to the exclusion of all others, but certainly with greater emphasis.

The best designers and makers of Dolmans and Capes are back of the splendid selection found in our stocks, and because of the prominence of this one style in the fashions for spring and summer, the fact mentioned above insures complete satisfaction to those who look to this department for right types. The newest lines are just in and we are mightily pleased with them.

RACE SUICIDE THREATENS TO MAKE CHANGES

Noted Educator Sees Radical Readjustment Among Classes

London, March 1.—(By Associated Press Correspondent)—Race suicide, as result of the "aristocracy of labor" will be the outcome of a movement by which labor now seeks to destroy capital, according to Dean Inge, of St. Paul's Cathedral, in an address recently at a meeting of the Eugenics Education Society. England's dense population, he asserted, will then disappear and the country will revert to the quiet, rural England of 1750, with London, bereft of her wealth, the "spiritual capital of the world."

"Neither voluntary restriction of births, which only lowers the death rate," he said, "nor famine, nor pestilence, nor war has much effect in reducing numbers. The late war cost 12,000,000 lives from the separation of husbands and wives, in addition to about 8,000,000 killed. But those losses he added, may be made good in a few years.

"But at home we must face the fact that the upper and middle classes probably will be destroyed by predatory taxation. We are witnessing the creation of a new privileged class, an aristocracy of labor, which will become exclusive and conservative when it has won the privilege of exploiting the public for its own profit. It probably will refuse to tax itself for the benefit of the proletariat, so that when the loot of the minority is gone, we shall no longer support the waste-products of civilization."

"From the eugenic point of view this will be an advantage, but since the cheap races must end by the capturing our trade, the privileged workers must themselves decay. The trade unionist probably will be allowed to place only one son in his union and take care not to have more. The industrial employment of women will also lower the birth rate. Thus, in every class there will be a tendency to progressive decrease."

COAL SHORTAGE IN LONDON NOW VERY SERIOUS

Coal "Queues," The Horror of London's Poor, Have Come Back with a Vengeance

Many Homes Are Cold Because Fuel Cannot be Secured at All Time

London, February 18.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Coal "queues," the terror of the poor of London, have again made their appearance because of an acute shortage in the coal supply, and thousands upon thousands of persons have been daily standing in line in the hope of getting enough coal to keep some kind of fire going in their humble homes.

A coal queue is an interesting sight. Early in the morning the number of customers appearing at some distributing point exceeds the number being disposed of by the coal merchant. So they line up, in the order of their arrival and patiently wait until they are supplied, or are told by the merchant that he has no more—by no means an infrequent development.

They buy in small quantities for two reasons—some of them have little money to invest in coal at existing high prices, while the second cause is the lack of means to remove large quantities. Often perambulators provide the vehicle, but more often the purchaser tucks his "black diamonds" away in an old basket, and hurries on his way.

If the dealer is so fortunate as to have a ton or two of coal the queue will be maintained for hours in the biting cold. If his supply is short, he is soon sold out, and the queue dissolves, only to be reformed at some other place in the hope of finding more coal.

It often happens that persons of means approach the dealer and offer high prices for quantities out of all proportion to the supply, and it is often regarded that the dealer will refuse the temptation, because he knows that his trade is among the people who are his regular customers, the poor of the neighborhood, and they will not forget him when he has abundant coal to sell if he discriminates in favor of a casual but richer person.

So poor and rich alike have been suffering and shivering, because no one really expected the temperature to drop as sharply as it has within the past few days. The winter to this time has been open and wet and sickeningly chilly, but not so cold as to cause actual suffering, even with a short fuel supply. But with the mercury hovering around 20 degrees above zero, "12 degrees of frost" they call it here coal is a necessity.

The shortage of coal is ascribed to a number of reasons, chiefly the dilatory work of the miners who have demanded a six hour working day, and the scarcity of railroad cars. Coal supplies in all centers of population are far below normal, and there is no prospect of an immediate improvement in the situation. Many persons have sought other means of keeping warm. One old man and his wife, they are over eighty, have been in bed for a week because they have no coal in the house, and their daughter cares for them. Children also are being kept between blankets with success, but the sturdy of the city must bear the burden as well as they can with mighty little prospect of relief until the railroads are in better position, or the balmy days of spring come to chase away the necessity for artificial heat.

MILITARY STORES ARE PERISHING

Coblenz, February 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Great piles of military stores worth millions of marks are lying in a hall in Frankenberg, Hesse, and are likely to be wasted unless soon cared for, says the Westphalian Volksblatt. The supplies consist principally of army uniforms thrown in great heaps after the demobilization of the German army.

AIRMAN INJURED WILL NOT COME HERE ON FRIDAY

There will be no aerial stunts over this city Friday, as previously announced, Lieut. Tyler having been injured and his machine destroyed by fire while appearing in Cincinnati on Wednesday afternoon.

As result of the burning of the plane and Lieut. Tyler's injuries, those in charge of the stunts found themselves unable to fulfill the stunt engagement and all appearances of the airman at this time have been cancelled. Lieut. Tyler, after a series of mishaps in endeavoring to reach Cincinnati from the Fairfield Aviation Field, landed on the golf grounds at Cincinnati, and in starting his machine was unable to leave the ground speedily on account of the mud, and struck an embankment, the machine turning over and the gasoline igniting.

Lieut. Tyler and his flying companion leaped from the plane but not until Tyler had received a severe gash over an eye.

Local War Savings Stamps workers Thursday morning received a message stating that Lieut. Tyler's appearance here had been cancelled for the present.

BRITISH BAGGED 8000 AIRPLANES AND LOST 2800

Remarkable Work of Daring
British Airmen is Described

Feats of British Navy Also Revealed by British Official

(By Associated Press)
London, March 14.—During the war 8,000 enemy airplanes were shot down by British air forces, while 2,800 British machines are missing. Brigadier General J. E. B. Seeley announced in the House of Commons in introducing the army's air estimates of 66,500,000 pounds.

General Seeley said that if the war had continued the estimate would have been 200,000,000 pounds.

When the armistice was signed, he added, England was turning out 4,000 airplanes a month and had 200 squadrons in commission, compared with six at the beginning of the war. The British navy, from August, 1914, to March 2, 1919, transported more than 26,500,000 soldiers and other personnel connected with the conduct of the war, Walter Hume Long, First Lord of the Admiralty, declared in moving the naval estimates for 1919.

In addition nearly 200,000 prisoners, 2,250,000 animals, more than 500,000 vehicles, 48,000,000 tons of military stores and 5,000,000 tons of live stores had been transported by naval transports.

"After five years we can feel that peace is in sight, and the British navy has borne its full share nobly in the attainment of that great end," Mr. Long said. "The activities of the navy have been universal. From North Scotland to the Great African lakes the fleet has made its power felt and the weight of its hand has been appreciated fully by the enemy. In aiding the food supply the navy has never given us any right to complain considering the issue at stake."

"Was there anything in the picture of a great naval action to compare with the surrender of the German fleet to the British fleet in mid-ocean? The final surrender of the German navy to our keeping was a greater naval victory than could have been achieved by any action at sea."

"I hope that surrender marked a new stage in the progress of the world and means that in the future we will be relieved of those errors which made the world so miserable during the last few years."

COLLECTION GARMENTS AN IMPORTANT MATTER

Every kind of garment for all ages and both sexes is urgently needed in devastated Europe. It is equally important to avoid the collection of garments which are utterly useless for relief purposes and should not be included in any parcel.

The contribution of such articles which cannot be sent abroad unnecessarily increases the expenditures of Red Cross money. Garments need not be in perfect condition, however.

NAVY RECRUITING MANY YOUNG MEN

Ensign Wm. S. Evans, of Cincinnati, engaged in recruiting men for the navy, was in this city this week, and while here issued the following statement regarding recruiting the naval service and the $60 bonus for discharged sailors:

"Due to the general lack of employment throughout the country many young men between the ages of 17 and 35 are taking advantage of the opportunities which are now being offered in the United States Navy. At this time there are openings in various trades. This means that a young man who is qualified is sent to one of the Navy's trade schools where he learns his chosen trade from top to bottom before assuming his duties on board ship."

"The openings to become Machinists and Electricians have been very popular as young men are coming to realize that acquiring such a trade in a four year term of enlistment in the Navy makes them much better men than an equal time spent working in a factory."

"The Navy is also at this time paying the $60.00 gratuity which is given to each man who served in the Navy during the war prior to November 11, 1918. Men who have been discharged or released should send their claim to the Disbursing Officer, Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., enclosing with their claim their original discharge or release and stating time of enlistment and time of discharge; the discharge or release is returned to the applicant with the $60.00."

"The Navy Recruiting Station at Cincinnati has been giving advice to all who wish information in these matters and is ready to supply further information to all applicants. Men desiring to know more of what is being offered may inquire of the local postmaster or write to the Cincinnati Recruiting Station direct."

MEXICO BOOSTS LEAGUE

Mexico City, March 20.—There were made public Wednesday resolutions introduced in the Mexican senate, but not yet acted upon, in connection with the League of Nations project. One of these resolutions expresses "sympathy and admiration" for President Wilson and the other declares the Mexican Senate "wishes that the noble democratic proposals of President Wilson, which it admired and applauded, be realized, and manifests its desire that if it has the opportunity the Mexican Republic form a part of the proposed League of Nations."

No Conscription

Great developments are occurring as the work of the peace commission at Paris proceeds in its orderly way nearer to the time when the final treaty of peace will be ready for submission to and acceptance by the representatives of Germany.

So rapidly are events shaping themselves, under the guidance of the able statesmen, that those men, especially the public servants and those who are accorded leadership of public thought, who assume a positive and hostile position regarding the terms of the peace treaty, whether that hostility extends to the document as a whole or to any one or more of its vital provisions, are in grave danger of "meeting themselves coming back" and being forced, much against what they regard as their political welfare, into a position directly contrary to the one political ambitions would dictate.

Great Britain, under the guidance of Premier Lloyd George, for the first time, changed its policies of confining its activity to shaping American principles and brought about the adoption of a clause abolishing conscription.

That, as Mr. Simonds points out, may have been caused by the determination of the British statesman to redeem his campaign pledges to the electorate of his empire but, nevertheless, it is one of the greatest experiments which the league of nations proposal or the terms of the peace treaty will launch.

It means that Europe will cease to be, after the treaty becomes effective, an armed camp, a magazine of war which the thoughtless or the designing may explode with a spark.

So far as Germany is concerned, hemmed in as she will be with buffer states, deprived of a navy and compelled to reduce and keep reduced, to the minimum, her standing army, driven to rely upon voluntary enlistments for recruits, there is little to fear, at least for many years to come.

As to whether the radical move of Lloyd George will prove an effective method of stamping out Bolshevism only time can answer.

While the small volunteer army—virtual disarmament of the nations of Europe—is much more harmonious as a companion provision to that which erects a league of nations to preserve peace, yet the demand of Great Britain, acceded to by the peace conference is, perhaps, the most pronounced departure made, or suggested to be made, by the nations of Europe during the whole progress of the peace conference.

Lloyd George, however, has but voiced the sentiment and urged the demand of the people of the whole civilized world who are prostrated by the horrors and sorrows of war and wearied by preparing for war in times of peace.

Conscription for army service in times of peace is a monstrous practice, but with Germany maintaining a huge army by conscription other nations of Europe were driven to do the same in self protection.

Villa's Curiosity

The Mexican bandit chief, Villa, announces that it is his purpose to conduct a series of raids along the boundary line between Mexico and the United States for the purpose, as he states, of "developing the attitude of the United States" toward Mexico.

Several of the robber raids have already been carried out and the government at Washington should act so promptly and decisively that the swarthy outlaw be spared any further expenditure of energy for the purpose of satisfying his curiosity.

The American people, aside from a comparatively few who have financial interests in Mexico which promise immense and, in many instances, unconscionable profits, have always opposed annexation of Mexico or armed intervention during the revolutionary outbursts in that country. Most Americans have believed in allowing the Mexicans to solve their own governmental problems and "work out their own salvation."

The United States has given its neighbor nation every opportunity to do so and has remained aloof but friendly and hopeful when selfishness dictated intervention or annexation. As a result the Carranza government seems to be fairly well established and is, we believe, some yellow newspapers to the contrary, friendly toward this nation. But Villa must be disposed of—he and his bands of outlaws menace the life and the property of citizens of the United States, on our own side of the border. The Mexican government has been given every opportunity and fails to apprehend the disturbers.

Right now, when we have hundreds of thousands of men ready and equipped and supplies inexhaustible, the United States should bring Villa and his band to the end of the rope—both figuratively speaking and actually.

POEM FOR TODAY

THE PROMISED SPRING

The thunder that once shook each rutted plain
Is silent, and the very lights no more Their blinding beams across the barbed wire pour;
And where the dead men fell the early grain
Will soon be planted, there to wipe the stain
Of leaping fire and bursting shell away;
And clouds of sulphur that obscured
the day
Have vanished with the rifles' leaden rain.
And soon the climbing vine will find a path
About the crumbling ruins, and the moon
Will bathe in lucid dreams those fields of wrath
That echoed to the cannon's sullen tune;
Rich scents will rise, and where the morning runs
The larks of France will sing about the guns.

The brown fields turn to green; the sunlight throws
Her golden mantle on a world reborn;
The bugle fades into the shepherd's horn;
The heart of youth cries in the crimson rose;
And Life itself, more tender, rises—goes
With quickened steps down roads that never end
To El Dorados where the visions blend
Into the perfect whole that no man knows.
The country lies at peace and even where
The little wooden crosses, strangely calm.
Uplift unpainted arms into the air
There is a rest, a silence and a balm
For spring comes dancing up the winding mile
And underneath the ground the dead men smile.

FARM NOTES

Federation Idea Growing

According to information received by the county agent leader of Ohio, farm bureau federations have been formed in the following states: California, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Vermont, West Virginia.

Preliminary arrangements have been made for the formation of a national farm bureau federation next November in Chicago. A committee of which O. E. Bradfute of Xenia is chairman is working on a proposed constitution and by-laws to be submitted at the meeting. Mr. Bradfute is president of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

To Demonstrate Sheep Shearing and Dressing

On Wednesday, April 9th, there will be a gathering of men interested in sheep husbandry in the judging pavilion of the Ohio State University. On this occasion a number of sheep shearing contests will be held, and silver cups and money prizes offered for the contestants. It is also planned to have an expert give a demonstration of grading wool, and assigning current market values to the grade made. There will also be given a demonstration of slaughtering and dressing mutton. Programs may be obtained by addressing the Department of Animal Husbandry, Ohio State University, Columbus.

News of Interest to Women

Mrs. M. E. Hitchcock hospitably threw open her home for a delightful meeting of the Women's Missionary Meeting of the First Presbyterian Church. The assisting hostesses were Mesdames Phil Davis, Maude Howland, F. M. Rothrock, Wm. DeVaney, Edgar Snider, Robert Bryson, W. B. Lansinger, Fritz Meier, J. T. Tuttle, Homer McDole, Carrie Deere, Maurice Williams, F. D. Woollard, Emma Smith, Jess Magley, Miss May McClimans.

The attendance of seventy women was very large and the interest great. Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, President, opened with devotionals and the business of the month was transacted.

Delegates elected to the Spring meeting of Chillicothe Presbytery, to be held in Bainbridge, in April, were Mrs. Elmer Klever, Mrs. W. H. Barnes, Mrs. J. L. McWilliams, alternates, Mrs. J. F. Dennis, Mrs. Harriett Woodward, Mrs. Wm. B. Gage, Mrs. Charles Gage was program leader.

The month's subjects, "Newest Americans" and "Japan" were presented in splendidly written papers. Mrs. Wm. Boynton Gage treated of "The Presbyterian Church and the Immigrants" and Miss Edith Hamm of "Japan and its Regeneration." An interesting leaflet, "Man from Massadonia" was read by Mrs. F. D. Woollard. Miss Ada Woodward added a charming vocal solo to the program. Dainty refreshments were served at the program's close.

The all day meeting of the Good Hope W. C. T. U. held at the home of Mrs. John York on Wednesday was attended by fifty women and girls, including members of the Union, visitors, teachers and school girls.

Fifteen dollars was realized from the nice dinner served by Mesdames York, Ethel Smalley, Eva Braden, and Ethel Goens.

This money will be used to purchase linings and cotton for the comforts, which the women are making for devastated France. Eight comforts were completed Wednesday and these will be finished and six more begun Friday, when the Unit meets at the home of Mrs. Wash Lough. The comforts are beautifully made and the women have worked faithfully on them. Mrs. York had converted her dining room into a cherry sewing room and the music room and library were used for putting the comforts into the frames.

The week's society interests centers in the University Club dance at the K. of P. Castle tomorrow night. Cole's Jazz Orchestra of Columbus, will furnish the music—playing all the new and up to date dances in the most approved style. There will be refreshments and everything done in for the pleasure of the guests, many of whom are expected from out of town. The grand march starts at 9 o'clock. Messrs. Robert Craig and John Browning are the committee in charge.

The last program of the club year was beautifully presented by the Cecilia in the Federated Club rooms on Tuesday afternoon. After the rendering of the well arranged numbers the program was closed by the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

The program included—
Current Events, Mrs. Lillie G. Davis
Mary Turner Salter
.....Mrs. Nettie H. Ballard
Short Sketch—Chas. Wakefield Cadman
.....Miss Minnie Light
Song—The First Blue Bird—Jamison
Mrs. Mary G. Burgett

Following the business session Mrs. Cockerill served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Rella Silcott.

Among the reports of the helpful work that Federated Club women are doing comes an account of the truly wonderful work of the Sandusky Federation of Women's Clubs in making little crippled boys and girls perfectly normal.

It is the story of woman's philanthropy, for the kindness of women is proverbial. About three years ago a survey disclosed that there were forty-three crippled children in Sandusky and Erie county. The number was surprising. Mrs. L. E. Field, chairman of the civics committee, volunteered to take charge of caring for these children and was appointed chairman of the crippled children's fund. By public subscription $400 was immediately raised without trouble—$300 for one free hospital bed and $100 extra for transportation of the little cripples, braces, etc. The following year $861.10 was raised by subscription. That meant two free beds and enough left over after paying $600 for the hospital beds to pay for braces and other expenses incurred. Last fall Sandusky club women made another subscription drive and raised $780.65. The two local newspapers got behind it and gave the club women their heartiest support. Total results: During the three years nine little boys and girls made perfectly whole; nothing could be done for three unfortunates; beds full at present and two children—a boy and a girl—on the waiting list. Sandusky club women hope to continue the work until all of the county's crippled children, whose parents or guardians care to take advantage of the opportunity, are made normal kiddies.

March nineteenth being Mr. George D. Hays' seventieth birthday, his sisters, Mrs. J. R. McCoy and Mrs. Aden S. HEARS THAT SON WAS KILLED IN ACTION SEP. 12

Ollie Williams, residing on Temple street, Wednesday received a letter which he had written to his son, Private John Williams, in France last November, and written across the face of the letter was the information that Private Williams had been killed in action September 12th, 1918—this being the first intimation of the young man's death that had reached the father.

Private Williams who was a member of I Company, 11th Infantry, had not written since the sixth day of last August, and when the months went by and no word was heard from him, the family became greatly worried and had started an investigation with a view to learning of their son's whereabouts, if still living.

The letter just returned to Mr. Williams and bearing the sad intelligence was written several months ago.

Private Williams leaves besides the father, two sisters, Mrs. Grace Stevens and Florence, also three brothers, Charles, Paul and Loren.

Mr. Williams will seek confirmation of the death of his son through the usual official channels.

The death of Private Williams brings the total number of Fayette county boys who made the supreme sacrifice up to 42.

ENTHUSIASM GROWS Y. W. C. A. CLASSES

Enthusiasm is growing among the women of the county in regard to the Y. W. C. A. movement, especially where athletics are concerned. This physical development side is the one which has so far received the most attention and is always a big factor in "Y" work, whether with either men or women.

The women's classes at the "Y", although so newly launched are steadily growing and promise to take up most of the hours on Tuesdays and Thursdays, the days the big gym and swimming pool are turned over to the women. The attendance Tuesday showed marked increase, with three classes, on the floor in the afternoon and evening having in them the largest number up to that time.

The women and girls are already finding benefit as well as a jolly good time in these classes under the direction of Physical Director Kiestner.

Thursday a fourth class is expected to be formed, for which new applicants are now being admitted. All women who intend coming into these classes ought to do so at once so that they may have the full benefit of them.

ALL CHARGES ARE DENIED BY PARRETT

George C. Parrett, Superintendent of the Ross County Infirmary who was recently temporarily dismissed on the citation of 15 points named by the county commissioners, Wednesday filed his answer with them and denied point blank every charge. He in some cases pointed out that the county commissioners themselves had been responsible for his conduct for they had directed it, for instance, that the silo be filled with marketable products in order that the stock might be fed, and too they failed to act on his reports of the bad condition of the buildings thus allowing them to run down themselves and not due to his negligence.

P. J. Blosser and E. J. Cutright represented Mr. Parrett. They have appealed the order of removal to the State Civil Service Commission and will endeavor to get an order counteracting the county commissioners order of removal.—Scioto Gazette.

WILL ACCEPT LIMITED CHANGE IN LEAGUE PACT

Leaders Selected to Present League Plan to Neutrals and to Invite Their Participation

Paris, March 20.—(By Associated Press)—The following subcommittee has been named to meet representatives of neutral countries for a discussion of the League of Nations: Colonel E. M. House, the United States; Leon Bourgeois, France; Lord Robert Cecil, Great Britain; Elipheios Verizelos, Greece; Paul Hymans, Belgium; and Dr. M. R. Vesnith, Serbia.

Paris, March 20.—(By Associated Press)—The American delegation, it is said, plans to accept a limited number of amendments to the League of Nations covenant.

Secretary of State Lansing will preside over the meeting of delegates of neutral nations today to hear their views on the situation.

It is expected that the League of Nations Commission will then reassemble and perfect the amendments, and that the completed covenant will be attached to the peace treaty.

The following official communication regarding the meeting was issued:

"The twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth meetings of the Committee on International Labor Legislation took place today under the presidency of Mr. Gompers.

"Special subcommittee appointed to find a solution for the difficulties which have arisen in regard to the application of labor conventions by certain Federal states presented a report suggesting a solution, which was adopted by the commission.

"Final reading of the British draft convention for the establishment of a permanent organization for international labor legislation was completed, and the draft convention as amended was adopted by the commission for submission to the peace conference.

"The commission then continued the discussion of the labor clauses to be recommended for inclusion in the treaty of peace.

A want ad will do it for you.

"Folks Would Pester Me"

Somebody asked an old Missouri store-keeper why he didn't put a small advertisement in the local newspaper to advertise a "home blend of coffee that was particularly good.

"I don't wanta," he replied lazily. "If I did, folks would pester me all the time to show 'em my goods."

Thus did an old Missouri store-keeper pay unconscious tribute to the business getting value of advertising. He missed a lot of business, of course, but there's another side of it.

Lots of people who really wanted this particular brand of coffee were unable to get it because no one ever told them where it was to be had.

You know yourself that it would take you twice as long to shop if there were no advertisements to guide you in your buying. You wouldn't know where to start. You'd miss a lot of good values just because no one ever told you about them.

The man who advertises is glad to have you "pester him" to show you his goods. Don't miss the advertisements. They will save you money.

THINKS RUSSIA SHOULD BE GIVEN EVERY ASSISTANCE

Prominent Russian Says League of Nations Fine, But Believes Help Should be Forthcoming

Vladivostok, February 4.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—"The Russian nation follows with a harsh feeling of bitterness all the efforts for creating a league of nations," declares Dr. Vaclav Girs, local member of the Czech National Council. "It comprehends with difficulty how the allied democracies can entertain this noble but rather distant idea, and at the same time look quietly on at what is transpiring in Russia," continued Dr. Girs.

"Russia today is in need of assistance. First of all she needs reorganization of her railroads. Nevertheless any form of assistance to Russia is imaginable only in conjunction with a military expedition which would be able to guarantee that the undertaking will not be destroyed by pernicious rebellions and disorders which have become chronic along the Siberian railways.

"In order, however, that such military intervention and economic assistance shall succeed, it is necessary to carry it out according to a clearly defined plan, that is to say, the removal of the Bolshevik government from Russia, the re-establishment and maintenance of order and peace throughout the country up to the time when it will be possible for the Russian people to constitute for themselves, freely and without coercion, their desired form of government. Such allied intervention will be accepted with exultation and with full confidence by all notwithstanding its even more efficient interfering with internal Russian affairs."

Adherence to the principle of non-interference with Russian internal affairs, he said, prevented the Allies from supporting either the Serbian government or the government of the Ufa directorate because of lack of assurance that either constituted a government having the confidence of the nation. Similarly, he pointed out, neither of these governments, even with the best programs they could devise, were able to win the confidence of the nation because they lacked the support of the Allies. The result is a deadlock and a situation affording fertile ground for new revolutions calculated to strengthen Bolshevism by driving into their ranks the wavering left-socialism.

FORMER KAISER "DISTURBED"

Amerongen, March 20.—(By Associated Press)—Considerable excitement was created at Amerongen Castle where former Emperor William is staying, when six airplanes appeared suddenly at noon from behind a bank of clouds. They came from the east, and, after encircling the castle twice, disappeared in a northerly direction. The nationality of the machines could not be distinguished, but it is assumed they were Dutch.

GREAT RESOURCES AWAIT ENTERPRISE

Vladivostok, March 1.—(By Associated Press Correspondent)—Immense resources in fisheries, lumbering and coal mining await development in the sea of Okhotsk and the island of Shaghalien. Golos Primorya in an article pointing out the need for improved shipping and transportation facilities in that northern region says that with only nine seagoing steamers available with an aggregate capacity of 527 tons, Mikolaevs, the center of distribution, exported 36,000 tons of fish last year. The crying need of the industry is more ships, according to the newspaper in question.

"The commercial fleet," continued the paper, "must be made ten or twenty times larger. The coastline of Kamchatka with its rich fisheries, the Sea of Okhotsk as well as the coal producing regions of Shaghalien use Nikolaevsk as a center for distribution. To meet the requirements a commercial fleet of 20,000 tons is necessary. There is enough timber available to supply all Europe and there is enough iron to supply local needs.

BERLIN RIOTS COSTLY

HAVE TROUBLE IN EXPELLING HUN CIVILIANS

Belgian Towns Still Contain Many Germans Regardless of Orders Issued

Brussels, February 26.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Despite the passing of a law providing for the expulsion of enemy subjects from Belgium, numerous German civilians are often seen walking the streets of this city and other large cities in Belgium at the present time. While the law went into effect more than a month ago, the Belgian government is experiencing as much difficulty in getting the enemy civilians out of the country as the Allied soldiers had in expelling the enemy army from the trenches.

The Minister of Justice has found the undertaking a greater one than he had expected. In the Belgium Chamber yesterday, Deputy Lemonnier, who acted as burgomaster of Brussels during the enforced absence of Burgomaster Max in Prussian jails and until he was removed himself to Germany, asked Minister of Justice Vandervelde what measures he intended taking to expedite the undesirable beyond the Rhine. Deputy Lemonnier brought the minister's attention to the fact that several Germans were walking the streets of Brussels with impunity and that some of them had been recognized as being paid agents of the Kommandantur during the occupation.

Vandervelde replied: "The Ministry of Justice is doing its utmost to rid the country of German civilians but the difficulties encountered are formidable. In times of peace undesirable are escorted to their frontier but since the signing of the Armistice, the Allied General Staff had refused absolutely to allow Germans to pass through the zone of occupation. Holland permits them to go through the country but not singly. Groups only are allowed in transit. At the present time one train of undesirable is leaving daily. Beginning February 23rd, two trains will leave for Holland daily carrying an average of twelve hundred Germans every day from Belgium."

An idea of the number of Germans in Belgium before the war and the still greater number who have elected to make it during the occupation what they thought would be their permanent living place, may be gathered from the fact that trains are expected to leave for weeks and perhaps for months.

The case of German subjects who have resided in Belgium for long years, have married Belgian women and whose sons have fought against the Germans is particularly sad. Under the terms of the law they should be expelled along with the others as they have remained enemy subjects. Vandervelde said however "It is impossible for me to send that class of Germans out of the country."

Mrs. Cramblett Tell Her Experience
The following brief account of an interview with a Washington C. H. woman four years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Mrs. J. J. Cramblett, 474 S. Fayette St., Washington C. H., says: "I was all run down and I had to give up my work. An attack of lumbago left me helpless. My back ached so much I could hardly bend over and my kidneys showed many signs of weakness. I couldn't sleep well and mornings I could hardly get out of bed. My head ached and I had such dizzy spells. I could scarcely walk. I was nearly a physical wreck. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they put me in good health." (Statement given July 31, 1913).

On August 7, 1917 Mrs. Cramblett said: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills again. Whenever I notice any symptoms of kidney trouble coming on, I use Doan's, and in twenty-four hours or less, I get fine relief."

EMERGENCY PART OF DRY MEASURE FAILS TO PASS

Crabbe Bill Passes the House 100 to 16 But Emergency Proposal Killed 69 to 48

Columbus, O., March 20.—By an overwhelming vote, the house yesterday passed the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill but killed the emergency clause.

L. H. Gibson, manager of the Ohio Home Rule Association, assuming the senate also will pass the bill, announced that the measure will be submitted to popular referendum next November.

The vote on the bill, after three hours' heated debate, was 100 to 16, many of the wets supporting it.

The emergency clause, however, making the proposal effective May 27, and heading off a referendum, was defeated by a vote of 69 to 48 against. It required 83 affirmative votes to enact.

The 48 negative votes included that of Representative Crabbe, author of the bill, who changed his vote from "yes" to "no" in order to be in a position to move reconsideration of the vote on the emergency clause.

Action on the bill took place immediately after the opening prayer by Rev. W. F. Wyckoff, house chaplain, in which he asked divine guidance on the important question of the day.

"Our action here today will be history making," said Rev. Mr. Wyckoff in his prayer. "We recognize Thou wilt hold us to strict accountability. We pray that our action today may be a step to the great goal of truth and righteousness."

Some of the members who voted against the emergency clause because they regard the referendum privilege as a sacred one, declared after the session that the chaplain's prayer had been answered.

The prohibition administrative bill, providing for a state commissioner and other enforcement machinery, will be voted on today. It would have been taken up yesterday if the debate on the other had not consumed the entire afternoon.

Crabbe, in his speech for the bill, insisted an emergency existed be-

ADMIRAL J. H. GLENNON

Rear-Admiral Glennon.

Rear-Admiral J. H. Glennon, now commandant of the Thirteenth Naval District at Seattle, Washington, has been appointed to succeed Rear-Admiral Nathaniel R. Usher as commander of the Third Naval District, with headquarters in New York, according to a report from Washington. Rear-Admiral Usher will retire from active service April 7, when he will reach the age of sixty-four. Admiral Glennon was a member of the Root commission that went to Russia in 1917, where he aided in the suppression of the mutiny of the Russian sailors at Sebastopol. He served in the battle of Santiago during the Spanish-American War as a Lieutenant on the battleship Massachusetts.

cause the people of the state issued the direct mandate that the prohibition amendment be carried into effect by legislation. Failure to enact a regulatory law which will be in full force May 27, when the prohibition amendment is operative, Crabbe declared, will subject the state to a wave of crime.

PARIS PROMISES SOMETHING NEW

Paris, March 6th.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—Paris fashions this year will be "strikingly new and handsome," regardless of the high cost of living, and in the way of gowns the feminine world expects to see a reaction from the wartime simplicity, says the Excelsior. "victory" style in women's gowns is expected to be much in vogue this spring and summer, the paper adds, and evening gowns will be more elaborate than they have been since the war.

Gowns will be longer and more ornate, it is reported, and brilliant colors, profusions of flowers, plenty of ribbons, frills and fur-trimmed, will be the rage. There will be no pronounced "military style." The year 1919, it is said, will not see the birth of any distinctly new fashion as it is only a "transition period."

MONSTER GUNS COMING TO U. S.

Coblentz, March 19.—(By Associated Press.)—One of the big 42 centimeter German guns which in 1917 fired upon Ypres day after day was turned over to the Americans recently by the German Delivering Commission. The Ypres gun with four others, all mounted upon railroad trucks, eventually may be sent to the United States as part of the war material which has been taken charge of by the American Army of Occupation.

When the five railroad guns arrived in Coblentz from unoccupied Germany they were in charge of Lieutenant Rudolph Gogarten, of the German army, who told members of the United States Receiving Commission that he had been in command of the crew which manned one of the guns of the shipment during the time that it was firing upon Ypres two years ago.

A Marconi engineer sat in a wireless hut at Clifden, Ireland, lifted the telephone receiver and called "Glance Bay!" Instantaneously the answer came: "Glance Bay talking."

From that moment continuously Clifden communicated with Nova Scotia, the voices carrying strong and clear all day.

There were no sentimental speeches about the marvel of God's work, but the technical engineers talked about improvements of the system which thus carries man's voice across the Atlantic as readily as between New York and Hoboken.

"Our experiment was a complete success," Manager Bradfield, of the Marconi Company, said last night. "Transmission was absolutely instantaneous and the voices were clear."

"After the first messages had been exchanged conditions were so perfect that our engineers continued their conversations all day, saving the delay of writing their comments and recommendations regarding improvements."

London first heard the news when Godfrey Isaacs, managing director of Marconi, made the simple announcement at a dinner of the American Chamber of Commerce.

Isaacs subsequently refused to give supplementary details of the conversation and imposed silence upon every Marconi official.

TEAM RUNS AWAY WAGON STRIKES CURB

A runaway occurred on Washington Avenue and Court street Wednesday evening when a heavy team belonging to Frank Collopy became unmanageable and dashed up Washington Ave. and on to Court street while hitched to a heavy farm wagon.

The horses were stopped when they ran into the curb on Court street. No damage resulted other than the team was almost stripped of harness.

We do not like to borrow trouble, but we are frightfully afraid that while we are making Europe safe for democracy the party will lose every post-office in the United States. —Houston Post.

NEW OUTBREAK IN PETROGRAD; SOVIETS GAIN

London, March 20.—A revolution of the Menshevik, or moderate element of the Social Democratic party that is against the Soviet Government, has begun in Petrograd, according to a German Government wireless dispatch received last night.

London, March 20.—Russian non-Bolshevik forces, having been defeated by Soviet troops, have retired to ward Odessa from north of that city, according to a Russian wireless dispatch.

An earlier report said that the non-Bolsheviks had assumed the offensive in the region north of Odessa, but had been repulsed by a Soviet counter-attack and retired toward Brestovaka. It was added that the city of Zhitomir had been occupied by the Soviet forces.

The statement reads:

"Soviet troops again have secured a victory in the region of Odessa. Mixed detachments of White Guards, consisting of partisans of General Denikine and General Petura, made great efforts to defend the approaches to Odessa for the purpose of covering the complete evacuation of the city. The Red Guards defeated the enemy, who are retiring toward the city."

Herr Ebert's threat to turn Germany loose on the Allies would have more weight if he did not wear paper clothes, a blotting-paper derby, tinsling spectacles, seaweed socks, pulp shoes, and a near rubber collar. —Washington Post.

SPRING PLANTED CROPS NEED A QUICK START

This Makes All the Difference in the World Between a Good and a Fair Crop.

OATS

Must be planted while the ground is still cold in order that rapid growth be made before the Hot Weather comes. Delay in ripening is often fatal, partly because of regularly recurring attacks of rust and partly because the foliage is not advanced enough to protect the tender roots from the burning sun.

LODGE ASSAILS PRESIDENT AND URGES REVISION

Predicts Future of Pact Unless Certain Changes Are Made

Harvard President Defends Substance of Proposed League

Boston, March 20.—"If the league shall be put in such shape that it will promote peace instead of breeding disorder and will work no injustice to the United States I will support it," said Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, in replying to a question of President A. Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard, during their debate on the League of Nations covenant last night.

"I hope from my heart it will be amended," he added. "I hope that such a league will be framed somewhere. In my belief it will not be done in Paris."

A demand from Dr. Lowell that Mr. Lodge say whether he would vote for the covenant if it were amended according to his wishes led to the Senator's declaration.

Senator Lodge bitterly denounced President Wilson for his failure to consult Congress on the necessary changes to the covenant of Paris. He demanded that Congress immediately be called into session to discuss amendments.

Addressing an audience of 3,000 persons in Symphony Hall, the distinguished speakers were applauded liberally, frequently and apparently impartially. There was no heckling, though cries of "Good" and "That's right" followed telling points in the arguments.

Senator Lodge outlined his attitude briefly, as in favor of a league of nations, but not of the covenant as presented.

"The whole treaty should be re-drafted," he asserted. "That is my first constructive criticism." Referring to the charge that the criticisms of the covenant were not constructive, Senator Lodge pointed out a number of ways in which he would amend the treaty, laying especial stress on the need of protection of the Monroe Doctrine.

"The hour is approaching rapidly," said Dr. Lowell, in summing up his plea for the covenant, "when we must decide whether our country shall take its place, like a great and generous nation, side by side with others as guardians of law, order and justice in the world, or whether it shall turn its face away from a world in agony."

He prefaced his argument with the statement that although he had always been "an inconsistent Republican" and frequently had been in agreement with Senator Lodge, he could not agree with his utterances on the League of Nations covenant, and still less with those of his senatorial colleagues.

Dr. Lowell maintained the correctness of the covenant in principle, arguing that while "very defective in its drafting" and "easily misunderstood," it should be "accepted and improved." He described it as an experiment in open diplomacy.

SOLDIERS CROWD "Y" DORMITORY

With the rapid demobilization of troops going on in all the camps many men just discharged are stopping in town over night en route home. Most of these men invariably seek the Y. M. C. A. for lodging.

The big dormitory at the "Y" has been filled almost every night, for some time, and several times men have been turned away because of the crowded conditions.

The "Y" furnishes a clean, warm bed at a very moderate price which appeals greatly to the discharged soldier, who has long since learned to regard the institution as one of their greatest blessings while in camp.

MATTY SATSUDA DEFEATS PAPPAS HERE LAST NIGHT

Champion Puts Shoulders Of Opponent to Mat in Two Straight Falls in Presence of Big Crowd.

Interesting Preliminary is Staged by Columbus Wrestlers.

A large crowd assembled at the old Armory on East Court street Wednesday night and thoroughly enjoyed two wrestling matches in which Matty Satsuda, champion light-weight wrestler, won over George Pappas of Toledo, in two straight falls, and an exciting preliminary contest between two Columbus wrestlers resulted in neither scoring a fall.

In the preliminary contest Young Tillman and Young Hamilton, both of Columbus, went to the mat. The match was for one fall in 30 minutes but neither man scored a victory.

Hamilton was the most aggressive and repeatedly secured the toe hold on Tillman who showed clever form in breaking it.

After this match Hamilton came on the floor and challenged Tillman to a bout anywhere at any time for two out of three falls. Tillman accepted the challenge.

The big show of the evening was between Satsuda and Pappas. Both men were very evenly matched in size and weighed in at 138 pounds each. This was a decisive bout for two out of three falls.

Neither man showed an advantage in the first twenty minutes. The Jap first showed by using a toe hold on Pappas. Pappas was mainly on the defensive during the entire show, but broke every hold Satsuda secured on him. Satsuda won the first fall with a cradle hold in 40 minutes and 29 seconds.

The second fall was secured by Satsuda in 14 minutes and 35 seconds. The champion pinned Pappas's shoulders to the mat with a half-Nelson.

The large crowd was pleased with the clean and efficient manner with which the exhibition was conducted. It is understood that other matches will be arranged for this city.

HI-Y BOYS ENJOY WEEKLY SESSION

The "Hi-Y" boys club enjoyed a delicious supper and a general good time when they met at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday night in weekly session. The boys were loud in their praise of the meal which was very kindly prepared by Mrs. Orne Brown, Mrs. Curry Deere and Mrs. Harry Hays. Marjorie Klever, Pauline Denny, Naomi Hawk and Nettie Lugenbee, local High School girls, did the serving.

The club had as guests Paul Streyer of O. W. U., and J. A. Teesley recently discharged from the Naval Aviation Service at Key West. Both young men made short talks.

Rev. McWilliams treated the boys to one of his informal little talks which are always popular among the High School students.

This was expected to have been the last of six suppers which the club had at first decided upon, but owing to the huge success of the movement two more were planned, and the suppers will probably continue weekly until the close of school.

There will be no meeting of the club next week on account of Spring vacation.

Valca Pitted Prunes have a delicious flavor—there are no pits to remove—the labor has been done for you and there is no waste.

And remember, seven prunes contain as much nourishment as the average serving of steak.

Try the recipe below, and use other Valca Dried Fruits.

VALCA Prune Gelatine

Dissolve one package of gelatine in one pint of boiling water, add juice of half a lemon, a tablespoonful of sugar and set aside until it begins to thicken. Beat with an egg beater until foamy and white, then stir in one cup of chopped VALCA pitted prunes, which have been stewed until soft, but not mushy. Fold in one cup of whipped cream and turn into a mold to harden. Add one-half cup of corn syrup or sugar to the water in which prunes were cooked and boiled down to a thick sauce and set aside until cold. Unmold the prune gelatine, pour the sauce and garnish with the whole cooked VALCA prunes.
